Dear Emma and Rachel,

If you engage in sex, be sure you understand your partner's limits, and communicate your own limits clearly. Don't engage in sexual activities without affirmative consent from your partner. For more information see:

<http://dos.uiowa.edu/policy-list/affirmative-consent-2/>

Use and encourage others to have a companion or a safe means of getting home, i.e., a trusted friend, taxi, Cambus or Nite Ride if available.

If you are sexually assaulted, you have several options; please see related information at this website:

You can reach a 24 hr. confidential victim advocate at 319-335-6000.

If you choose a police investigation of this crime, we will investigate, provide support, and offer related services. We encourage everyone to report crimes immediately by calling 911. Sex offenses are treated with the greatest seriousness on our campus; criminal and/or severe disciplinary action can be taken. If a criminal case is brought, we will support you as much as possible as you pursue it.

In the case of disciplinary action, it is our University's commitment that a victim shall be informed of the outcome of any institutional disciplinary proceeding brought alleging a sex offense.

UI Police offer Rape Aggression Defense courses as well as personal safety information through a Crime Prevention Specialist. See <http://police.uiowa.edu> for more information.
