
Cafecito Chat: Latinx Students Unite!

Join Alianza, the undergrad Latine empowerment student organization, to be in community with other Latine students over cafecito, tea, and treats.

POV as a POC

Share your Point of View as a Person of Color in this conversation led by student facilitator, Joselyn Molina Lagunas, program assistant in the Office of Intercultural Engagement and Inclusion.

Writing Workshop with Dr. Teresa Hernández

Join Willamette University Professor of English, Dr. Teresa Hernández, in a culturally-grounded writing workshop. Topics will include how to approach the writing process in ways that affirm your identity and voice as well as how to navigate feelings of imposter syndrome. The workshop will also include a student-led Q&A. Students who are the first in their family to attend college are especially encouraged to attend.

¡Viva Salem! Todos Unidos Hispanic Heritage Festival

Be there for the first-ever City of Salem celebration of Hispanic Heritage Month. Make history! Meet on campus to go over to the Riverfront to enjoy food vendors, dance and music performances, and the lovely park. Admission and performances are free but bring money or snacks if you'd like to eat. More info here. Open to everyone!

Documentary Film Screening of Negra

OXCH

Follows director Medhat Ezzouba's search of exploring

Latinx seniors, graduate students, and others looking to develop their leadership. Sign up

This programming was made possible by the generous insights and collaborations of campus partners, and through the gracious support of the Renjen Fund.

Alianza, the student organization for Latine empowerment
Maria Aguilar Alvarado & Eduardo Ojeda-Sierra, Alianza co-Presidents
The Bistro
David Craig, Department of Biology
Teresa Hernández, Department of English
Ruth Feingold, Dean of the College of Arts & Sciences

Allison Cordova, class of 2027
Edgar Nevarez Lechuga '22, Law User Services Consult for WITS
Lizzie Silva Mendez, Computer and Data Science Program Coordinator
Juliane Corpus, Director of Intercultural Engagement and Inclusion
Lisa Logan, Director of the Gender Resource & Advocacy Center
Lucas Cordova, Assistant Professor of Computer Science
Reyna Meyers, Administrative Program Coordinator
Vanessa Hernandez Barron, class of 2024